

Interested in holding an event?

Patchouli Joe's Books & Indulgences would love to hear about the event you'd like us to host. There are few things we need to tell you first.

- We generally do not charge for the use of our space. Since we don't charge, our hope is that the community groups, book clubs, and audiences that attend our events will recognize that we must make money to survive. We ask that you consider buying our coffee and snacks while you are here.
- We also hope that book clubs in particular will consider buying their books at Patchouli Joe's. We will offer a 10% discount to all book club specific purchases. For those attending readings, consider supporting both the writer and the store by buying the highlighted book. Or any book.
- There are very few spaces that can survive without charging for use. Imagine trying to meet in a fastfood restaurant—or any restaurant—without purchasing something. We recognize that there's something different about an independent bookstore. Our relationship with our customers is certainly not just economic. We love the conversation, the community spirit, and the sense of engagement in Leander.
- We also want to continue to be here to enjoy all of that.

As always, if you have questions, please feel free to contact us at Contact@PatchouliJoesBooks.com or call us at 512-861-0925.
